ANNUAL REPORT
2014
In 2014, SAGE celebrated its 60th Anniversary. Many events were held throughout the year as part of the celebration to commemorate the six decades of helping older adults age in the comfort of their own communities.

First, a “Celebrating 60 Years” contest was kicked off at the beginning of the year. Summit Mayor Ellen Dickson presented Miles Mahon of Summit with the Grand Prize award at SAGE’s Community Day, which was held on March 29. The First Prize winner was Patricia Ottleben of Chatham and Elizabeth Rayball of Summit was the Second Prize winner.

Union County Board of Chosen Freeholders also presented a proclamation in honor of SAGE’s anniversary at the Community Day event. Many local organizations were on hand to support SAGE and provide information to the attendees.

In June, SAGE held a Casino Night event at the Summit Elks Club and in November, a Theatre Night was held.

The year was rounded out by a corporate breakfast in December, which honored Violet Allen for her 40 years as a Certified Home Health Aide at SAGE. Summit Medical Group also served as the honoree and presenting sponsor of the event, which featured Dr. Paul McGhee as the guest speaker.

We are so appreciative of the attendees and sponsors who made all of these events a success during our celebratory year!

On the business side of 2014, we went through many changes within the organization. Jessica Rosenzweig Gruber stepped down as Executive Director at the end of July. In August, former board member Angela Sullivan was named as Interim Executive Director.

At the beginning of 2015, Fred Jenny was named Executive Director and Angela was named Deputy Executive Director. Fred comes to SAGE from the Long Island Alzheimer’s Foundation, where he served as ED for six years.

Throughout the year, our programs and services continued to assist the many older adults in the region who look to SAGE for support. As you will note from the accomplishments page, we had far-reaching assistance to those who needed it most.

We are also very grateful to the many volunteers and local organizations who continue to provide time, talent and treasures to help the community through SAGE’s efforts. Each year, we wish we could give awards to everyone! And to the donors who so graciously give, we thank you!

Regards,

Carol King Barrow
